Tromsø Turnforening is seeking coach in artistic gymnastics

Tromsø Turnforening (TTF) have over 900 members who are related to various activities at all levels. The club has around 60 female and male artistic gymnasts in competition squads. We have recently opened our dedicated and fully equipped gym. Our gymnasts are at different levels ranging from National team competitors to “gymnasts for fun”. We have dedicated head coaches for male (Vasilij Manyakin) and female (Vicentiu Roman) gymnasts.

We wish to evolve further and strengthen the artistic gymnastic competence in the club. We are therefore looking for a new coach who is motivated to help us evolve both female and male artistic gymnastics at all levels.

The position is a 100% position. The applicant must be willing to conduct a test week with us and there is a trial time of 3 months. Hours will largely be afternoons/evenings 6 days a week. The coach must be expected to work in weekends.

Main Responsibilities:

- Create and implement training plans
- Contribute under training camps and specific income generating initiatives under the auspices of TTF
- Attend competitions which TTF wants the coach to attend.
- Ensure safe practice of training
- Build positive relationships with gymnasts, coaches and athletic leaders
- Participate in recruiting young gymnasts from recreational to competitive classes
- Contribute to increasing competence among other coaches
- Contribute in building a good coaching team
- The coach must work within the guidelines and rules that apply for Norwegian sport in general and overarching strategies and action plans for Tromsø turnforening
